

OCPS promotes academic excellence while recognizing the social and emotional development of each child within a safe, challenging, and nurturing community.