

Oconee Parent Workshops

Spring 2022

Tuesday, January 25, 6:30-7:30pm

Oconee County Library, Watkinsville

Self-Determination

Learn what self-determination is and how to help your child build the skills they need to be successful in school and life. Topics will include understanding strengths, setting goals, problem solving, and helping students believe in themselves. Candice Southhall, Associate Professor with the Department of Exceptional Child Education at Piedmont University will present.

Thursday, February 24 6:00-7:15pm

Transition to College for Students with IEPs

Hear from local college advisors about accessing disability services to help your student be successful. Students are encouraged to attend! Register for this virtual training via the link below.

Thursday, March 17 5:30-6:30pm

Oconee County Library, Watkinsville

Building Language and Communication Skills

Join us as the UGA Speech and Hearing Clinic presents great tips on helping your child develop language and build communication. Learn how to help foster these skills in the home. This workshop is geared toward Pre-K and early elementary families, but all ages are welcome to attend!

Tuesday, April 19 6:30-8:00pm

Special Needs Planning

Financial advisor Nick Wallace and Attorney Dennise Grayson will discuss planning for the future of your exceptional child. Topics include protecting benefits, ABLE accounts, special needs trusts and financial planning strategies. An open Q&A session will follow the presentation.

Register for these free workshops here: <https://forms.gle/JzyHKvKEsNWqGgGQ9>

Or contact Vicki Hilpp, Parent Mentor for Special Education vhilpp@oconeeschools.org (706) 769-5130 ext. 1210