Digital Learning Survey Results (All Respondents)

- How well do you think distance/digital learning was delivered during this unexpected school closure?
  - 88.2% Excellent
  - 230.5% Very Good
  - 241.2% Good
  - 1305.31% Fair
  - 1716.40% Poor

- How manageable do you think student workload was during this closure?
  - 50.2% Very Unmanageable
  - 285.7% Unmanageable
  - 961.22% Manageable
  - 1352.32% Very Manageable
  - 1583.37% Very Manageable

- If local, state, and federal guidance indicates that we are unable to return to school on our normal start date (August 5), which is your preference?
  - Begin school on August 5 with distance/digital learning
  - Begin school with in-person instruction in late August/early September

What do you think was most successful about distance learning? (All Respondents)
- Teacher availability, maintaining student connections, support, creativity, dedication
- Availability and use of technology applications (Google, Zoom, ITS, etc.)
- Students were able to work at their own pace / flexibility provided to students
- Communication
- Provided opportunity for students to continue learning / kept students engaged
- Being 1:1 / Availability of devices
- Safety/Health of students maintained
- Quality of instructional content
- Fostered development of student independence, responsibility, and time-management
- Flex Friday

What do you think needs to be improved re: distance learning? (All Respondents)
- Increase direct instruction and virtual and/or scheduled classes / less busy work
- Decrease student workload
- Improve grading & assessment practices / greater opportunity for feedback to students
- Increase student workload
- Increase consistency of procedures, applications, and communication methods utilized
- More communication to parents re: assignments/expectations/info to support student
- Greater student accountability/engagement
- Better support for students with special needs / improve delivery of accommodations
- Better access to the internet/WiFi
- More opportunity for individual/small group interaction with/attention from teachers

Digital Learning Survey Results (Parents)

- How well do you think distance/digital learning was delivered during this unexpected school closure?
  - 22.2% Excellent
  - 195.5% Very Good
  - 835.23% Good
  - 1466.30% Fair
  - 1155.31% Poor

- How manageable do you think student workload was during this closure?
  - 7% Very Unmanageable
  - 250.7% Unmanageable
  - 843.23% Manageable
  - 1381.37% Very Manageable

- If local, state, and federal guidance indicates that we are unable to return to school on our normal start date (August 5), which is your preference?
  - Begin school on August 5 with distance/digital learning
  - Begin school with in-person instruction in late August/early September
Digital Learning Survey Results (Students)

What do you think was most successful about distance learning? (Students)
- Students able to work at own pace/flexibility of schedule
- Teacher availability & support, communication, maintaining connections with students, etc.
- Technology applications and use (ie. ITS, Google Meets, Zoom, etc.)
- Opportunity to maintain/improve grades
- Appropriate workload
- Online classes/lectures
- Opportunity to continue learning
- Nothing
- T- Fostered student independence, responsibility/time-management skills
- T- Maintained contact with others
- T- Being 1:1/Availability of devices
- T- Safety/Health of students maintained
- T- Being able to sleep late

What do you think needs to be improved re: distance learning? (Students)
- Increase direct instruction and virtual and/or scheduled classes/more teacher contact
- Decrease workload
- Increase consistency of teacher procedures, comm. methods, instructions/expectations
- Better technology or Internet/WiFi access
- Better teacher communication/availability/response time
- More student accountability
- Nothing
- More interaction with peers
- Better assessment/grading practices
- More varied/interesting assignments/projects

Digital Learning Survey Results (OCS Personnel)