NOTE TO CONTRACTOR

The criteria for prequalification (“Criteria”) are all of the items and information set forth or requested in this form, together with any information disclosed by any of those references, persons or entities identified in any response that is reasonably related to the Project or the quality of work. If the response to a particular item may result in disqualification per se, the item is so noted. The Owner, in its reasonable discretion, shall rate the Contractor in respect of each section of this form as satisfactory or unsatisfactory. A satisfactory rating shall mean only that the Owner believes that Contractor meets a minimum threshold with respect to being qualified to submit a bid on this Project only, and shall not be deemed or construed otherwise or for any other purpose. In order to be qualified, the Contractor must not be disqualified per se, and must not receive an unsatisfactory rating for any section. As noted at Section IX, the failure to fully respond to all items will result in disqualification. If the answer to any item is “none” or “not applicable,” do not leave it blank, but state “none,” or “not applicable.”

All information is to be written on this form with no attachments, unless specifically stated to be allowed.

I. INSTRUCTIONS, WARRANTIES AND ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

- A. Each response shall be full and complete, without exception.
- B. By submitting this Prequalification Statement, the Contractor authorizes the Owner, and the Owner's agents, attorneys and other representatives, to contact each and every identified reference, person or entity. The Contractor agrees that any information concerning the Contractor in possession of any identified reference, person or entity may be fully disclosed, and made available, to the Owner and its agents, attorneys and other representatives.
- C. The Contractor represents, warrants and affirms that truthful, complete and correct information is provided to the Owner in this Prequalification Statement. In the event that any information or other response contained herein changes in any way after submission of this Prequalification Statement and before the contract is awarded and signed by all parties, Contractor shall immediately notify the Owner, in writing, of such change or changes and the Owner may take such action thereon as it deems appropriate. The Contractor acknowledges and agrees that the Owner will rely on the truthfulness, completeness and correctness of the information and responses contained in this Prequalification Statement. The Contractor acknowledges and agrees that all responses by the Contractor contained in this Prequalification Statement are material and important to the Owner's evaluation of the Contractor's qualifications to undertake the Project. If the Contractor knowingly provides any false, incorrect, misleading or incomplete information to the Owner in this Prequalification Statement, the Contractor may be disqualified per se to submit a bid on this Project, or if discovered after contract award, any agreement that is entered into between the Owner and the Contractor based on this Prequalification Statement shall be deemed materially breached and subject to immediate termination for cause or rescission for cause by the Owner at the sole option of the Owner. The Owner also shall have and retain any and all other rights and remedies provided by law, in contract or otherwise.
- D. Neither this Prequalification Statement, nor its completion by the Contractor, nor its submission by the Contractor, nor its receipt or use by the Owner, shall give rise to any responsibility or liability on the part of the Owner to the Contractor or to any third-party.
